In regard to showjumping entries, the Exhibitor shall be deemed to be the rider, and full details of the horse(s) and owner(s), including British Showjumping numbers, MUST be given on the entry form.

Entries are confined to horses or ponies registered with British Showjumping and must be ridden by members.

4. Substitution entries will be approved only in accordance with British Showjumping Rule 79.4.
5. When a standard has been reached, horses incurring more than a certain number of faults may be retired in accordance with British Showjumping Rule 203.3.
6. Stables will be available for competing Showjumping horses provided these are booked and paid for at the time of entry and before closing date. Other than at the discretion of the Chief Steward, a stable may be booked in respect of a competitive animal only.

In respect of stables booked for Showjumping Horses, the period of occupation of a stable shall be from 7.00 p.m. on the first night of reservation until 6.00 pm on the day following the last night of reservation. Exhibitors SHALL NOT under any circumstances occupy any stable which has not been officially allocated to them and infringement of this rule will incur a penalty of £80 per night per stable occupied and may lead to exclusion from the Show.

7. Immediately before certain Finals, Competitors may be required to parade in jumping order. Failure to comply may involve disqualification.
8. Competitors must be ready 15 minutes before starting time. Horses/Ponies must jump in programme order unless special permission has been obtained from the Steward in charge of Jumping. If a Competitor does not respond when his order number is called he loses his turn and the horse bearing the number called may be eliminated from the Competition in progress.

9. The number of entries in each Competition may be limited at the discretion of the Showjumping Committee, who reserve the right to refuse or reject any entry without giving reason therefor, or to accept additional entries should the class allow.

In the case of the number of entries in any class (excluding finals) exceeding the number which the organisers consider that they can accommodate, then entries will be limited by reference to the British Showjumping Gold League List. Notwithstanding this, the organisers retain the right to limit the number of horses per rider in any class, in any manner which they deem appropriate. In any case, a refund will be made of the relative fees.

10. The Showjumping Committee reserves the right to alter the times and format of Classes or to cancel any class at its sole discretion.

11. Exercising of Stock and moving from Stables. Showjumping Horses, Light Horses and Ponies may be exercised only in the designated areas of the Light Horse Float Park and Showground, or by order of the Stewards.

12. Disclaimer of Liability to Exhibitors. The term Exhibitor shall include persons taking part in any competition, exhibition or display arranged by the Society and the owner of any animal, plant, machinery or other thing involved in any such Competition or display or otherwise exhibited on the Showground. Save for death or personal injury caused by breach of its duty the Society will not be responsible for death, injury, disease, damage, or loss caused to any Exhibitor or to his or her servant or agent or to any animal, article, plant, machinery or thing of whatever nature brought on to the Showground by the said Exhibitor from whatever cause death, injury, disease, damage or loss arises.

Save as aforesaid the Exhibitor shall indemnify the Society against all claims, damages and expenses whatsoever in any way arising out of the presence of the Exhibitor, his or her servants, agents, exhibits, vehicles or equipment on the Showground and shall assume full responsibility therefor.

Acceptance of the foregoing provisions shall be a condition of entry.

Exhibitors are advised to insure against fire and other appropriate risk not only as regards their own property but also against any third party claims

13. Conditions of Admittance. Persons are admitted to the Royal Highland Centre (which incorporates the Car Parks, Royal Highland Showground, including the livestock lines, roadways, Royal Highland Exhibition Hall and other premises) at their own risk and while every endeavour will be taken to ensure their safety the Society will not (save for death or personal injury caused by breach of its duty) be held responsible for personal injury (whether fatal or otherwise), loss of or damage to property or any other loss, damage, costs and expenses however caused.

When moving between trade stands, exhibits, rings or public areas, all persons must use designated roads and avenues and must comply with the instructions of the Society's Directors, Stewards, Staff (identifiable by official badge) or by the Police. On no account may members of the public remove or climb over or past pedestrian barriers.

Persons entering livestock areas do so at their own risk. In no circumstances may anybody enter the Main Ring, Jubilee Ring or Judging Rings without the authority of the Chief Steward concerned.

The Society reserves the right to remove from any part of the Showground any person whose behaviour is deemed to be unacceptable for any reason.

14. The Society considers that prize monies and/or deposits attach themselves to the exhibit and hence to the Exhibitor, i.e. the bona fide owner of the exhibit. Claiming prize monies/deposits will be the responsibility of the exhibitor under which the entry is made. The Competitions team will be in contact regarding prize money after the Show and the deadline stated within prize money correspondence will be the final deadline for any prize monies/deposits to be claimed. Failure to claim by the deadline will result in prize monies/deposits being forfeited. Payment will be made through the PayIt system, an email will be sent to all exhibitors with instructions on how to claim prize monies/deposits.

Animal Health Regulations for Horses

1. Exhibitors are reminded that Equine Viral Arteritis is a notifiable disease in certain circumstances and that animals placed under restriction for this disease must not be brought to the Show.
2. Horse Passports
All competitors must carry a valid passport for all horses coming to the Show. Checks may be carried out by the Trading Standards Department of The City of Edinburgh Council.
3. Any Exhibitor from outwith the United Kingdom in addition to the Society's Animal Health Regulations, be required to abide by all British import and export regulations.
4. It will be mandatory for all horses, ponies and donkeys entering the showground to be vaccinated against equine influenza, all animals must have completed the primary course of two vaccinations .

If sufficient time has elapsed, the 3rd booster vaccination must have been administered. Please seek veterinary advice on the timing of relevant vaccinations.

Further booster vaccinations must be administered at intervals of not more than 365 days.

Foals under 6 months do not require vaccination.

All vaccinations must have been administered at least 7 days before entering the showground.

The last vaccination date must be entered on the Horse Health Declaration form and handed in on arrival at the showground.

Random passport checks will be implemented and any horse without a valid vaccination protocol or owner/exhibitor unable to produce a valid passport will lead to immediate eviction of that horse/pony/donkey from the showground.

The Society vets are monitoring the vaccination protocol on an ongoing basis.

5. In the event of new Animal Health legislation being enacted between the date of preparation of this Schedule and the date of the Royal Highland Show, then exhibitors will be expected to abide by any new conditions of that legislation.
