1. Disclaimer of Liability:

The term Competitor shall include persons taking part in any competition, exhibition or display arranged by the Society and the owner of any animal, plant, machinery or other thing involved in any such competition or display or otherwise exhibited on the Showground (being all ground occupied or used, designated for or available for occupation and use, in connection with the Royal Highland Show). The Society will not (save for death or personal injury caused by breach of its duty) be held responsible for personal injury (whether fatal or otherwise). The Society will not be responsible for paying any compensation to Exhibitors for any loss of or damage to property or any animal, article, plant, machinery or thing of whatever nature brought on to the Showground by the Exhibitor or any other loss, damage, costs and expenses, unless such loss, damage and/or expenses are suffered as a result of the Society's negligence or breach of duty.

The competitor shall be responsible for any and all exhibits, vehicles or equipment brought on to the Showground by the Competitor and shall also be responsible for the actions of any of its employees, agents or servants, The Competitor shall be liable for any loss or damage suffered by the Society (including damage to the Showground) where such loss or damage was caused by an intentional, reckless or negligent act or omission of the Exhibitor. Acceptance of the foregoing provisions shall be a condition of entry.

Competitors are advised to insure against fire and other appropriate risk not only as regards their own property but also against any third party claims.

2. Original Work:

Every exhibit must be the work either of the Exhibitor or of a member of the exhibiting Society or Institution. Where a class specifies "competitor's own design", a third party, professionally designed chart or kit is not valid.

3. Copyright:

As you may be aware there are legal copyright considerations to take into account when entering items for shows and competitions.

To ensure we consider copyright, one of the following should be displayed on a card which can be hidden while judging is taking place,

- A. Make/designer of pattern or kit as well as the number.
- B. Adapted from pattern or based on work by _____
- C. Original design.

After Judging has taken place, this information should be clearly on show so that it mitigates any pieces being published without the necessary credit. If an item is for sale, you should also state the origin and if possible, have the designer's permission.

4. Children's Entries

A Child's entries must be made on their own entry form, giving their name, date of birth and contact address for mailing (which may include the name of the parent or guardian); the child's age should meet the qualifying age range on the date of Judging of Handcrafts.

5. Group Entry for children:

Entry to be made under a group name (see relevant note on Entry Form).

6. One item per class

An Exhibitor may enter only one item per class. No exhibit may be entered in more than one class, nor have been entered in the Royal Highland Show before.

7. Glass

Entrants are allowed to use glass in framed articles. A panel should not be framed.

8. Ready to be Hung **

Asterisks denote that submitted exhibits must be completely ready for wall-hanging i.e. with all relevant frame, hooks, wire, etc. (after judging, exhibits are wall-hung for public display)

9. Withdrawals

Please advise the Competitions Department of any withdrawn entries/ exhibits unlikely to be completed in time for the Show. Write or phone 0131 335 6164.

10. Standards

Where, in the opinion of the Judge, an exhibit does not attain the standard of workmanship which may reasonably be expected in any particular class, the Society reserves the right to withhold such article from exhibition.

11. Judging

Will take place on the Sunday, prior to the opening of the Royal Highland Show.

12. Cash Prizes

Are offered in each class as follows:- 1st £10; 2nd £6; 3rd £4.

In no case shall a prize card be awarded to items placed from 4th to 6th in each class unless there are ten or more entries in the class and the Judge deems the exhibit to have sufficient merit. Prize money will be forwarded to winning Exhibitors a period after the Show.

The Society considers that prize monies and/or deposits attach themselves to the exhibit and hence to the Exhibitor, i.e. the bona fide owner of the exhibit. Claiming prize monies/ deposits will be the responsibility of the exhibitor under which the entry is made. The Competitions team will be in contact regarding prize money after the Show and the deadline stated within prize money correspondence will be the final deadline for any prize monies/ deposits to be claimed. Failure to claim by the deadline will result in prize monies/deposits being forfeited. Payment will be made through the PayIt system, an email will be sent to all exhibitors with instructions on how to claim prize monies/deposits

Guidance to competitors

13. Entries

Entries must be with the Society, not later than Sunday 20th May 2024, accompanied by remittance covering all exhibitor's entries at £2.20 per exhibit.

14. Six or more entries:

A ticket to the Show, valid for use on the day of the prize giving, will be sent to exhibitors with 6 or more exhibits.

15. Labels and cards

Mailing labels and exhibit cards to be attached to exhibits, will be supplied by the Society and sent to exhibitors prior to the Show. When submitting in person sticks and crooks, please have exhibit labels attached before delivery.

16. DELIVERY of exhibits

Post: Exhibits for the Handcrafts Competition can be sent by post as from Monday 30th May, to allow for slow parcel service. Sufficiently strong packaging needs to be used, to enable return by post. It is the exhibitors responsibility to ensure sufficiently strong packaging is used.
