* IMPORTANT NOTES ****

Each exhibitor is permitted to enter a maximum of 3 entries per class.

Entry to the showground with birds will be by letter of authority. Re-admission wristbands, to enable exhibitors' access to the show, will be issued by stewards when birds are delivered to their pens. ONE wristband will be issued per exhibitor number and only if that exhibitor makes five or more entries (excluding eggs). Wristband access is only permitted via the main show entrance gates.

Competition Exhibits will be admitted to the Showground between 7.00 p.m. and 9.00 p.m. on the Friday of the Show and between 7.00 a.m. and 8.30 a.m. on the Saturday of the Show.

Please note the location of the marquee on page 2.

Exhibitors' attention is drawn to the rules and regulations at the end of this schedule.

All exhibitors agree to be bound by the rules of the Poultry Club of Great Britain.

RULES & REGULATIONS

When making entries all exhibitors agree to having read and abide by the following rules and regulations:

Disclaimer of Liability

1. The term Exhibitor shall include persons taking part in any competition, exhibition or display arranged by the Society and the owner of any animal, plant, machinery or other thing involved in any such competition or display or otherwise exhibited on the Showground. Save for death or personal injury caused by breach of its duty the Society will not be responsible for death, injury, disease, damage or loss caused to any Exhibitor or to his or her servant or agent or to any animal, article, plant, machinery or thing of whatever nature brought to the Showground by the said Exhibitor from whatever cause death, injury, disease, damage or loss arises.
Save as aforesaid the Exhibitor shall indemnify the Society against all claims, damages and expenses whatsoever in any way arising out of the presence of the Exhibitor, his servants, agents, exhibits, vehicles or equipment on the Showground and shall assume full responsibility therefore.
Acceptance of the foregoing provisions shall be a condition of entry.
Exhibitors are advised to insure against fire and other appropriate risk not only as regards their own property but also against any third party claims.

Poultry Club

2. The Royal Highland Show has been designated as Scotland's Royal Championship Show. The Society is affiliated to the Poultry Club of Great Britain and Poultry Classes will be held under the Rules and Regulations of the Poultry Club of Great Britain and exhibitors making entries agree to be bound by such rules.
Poultry Club Representative: TBC.
Welfare Officer(s): The Royal (Dick) School of Veterinary Studies.

Entries

3. Entries will be accepted until 19 May on forms obtainable from the Society, or online (www.royalhighlandshow.org) until 26 May. No entry will be accepted by the Society unless accompanied by the appropriate fee(s). Absolutely no late entries will be accepted.

Responsibility for Entries

4. Exhibitors are solely responsible for the accuracy and eligibility of their entries. The recording of an entry or the admission of the exhibit to the Showground will not relieve the Exhibitor of this responsibility. The entry fee paid for an exhibit entered in a class for which it is not eligible is non refundable.

Suspended Exhibitors

5. The Society reserves the right to refuse, cancel or prohibit the exhibition of Poultry or Eggs from any person under suspension by The Poultry Club of Great Britain or any Agricultural or Breed Society.

Limitation of Entries

6. In the event of more entries being made than can be accommodated, the Society reserves the right to require Exhibitors to make a proportional reduction in the number of their entries in which case a refund of the relative entry fees will be made.

One Class Only

7. No Exhibit may be entered in more than one class and no exhibit may compete in a class other than that prescribed for exhibits of that description.

Ownership

8. All birds exhibited at the Show must, at the closing date of entry, be the bona fide property of the Exhibitor in whose name they are entered.
All eggs exhibited at the Show must be from poultry being the property of the Exhibitor.

Substitution and Withdrawal

9. Substitution of entries will not be permitted after the closing date for entry and no refund will be made for withdrawals notified after that date.

Admission of Entries

10. Competition Exhibits will be admitted to the Showground between 7.00 p.m. and 9.00 p.m. on the Friday of the Show and between 7.00 a.m. and 8.30 a.m. on the Saturday of the Show. All exhibits must be penned or staged before 9.15 a.m. on the Saturday. Admission to the Showground for Exhibitors will be on production of a letter of authority, which will be supplied along with detailed delivery instructions prior to the Show.

Handling Exhibits

11. Exhibits must not be touched or handled either by the owner or by any other person.

Control of Exhibits

12. While in the Showground all entries are subject to the orders of the Chief Steward and may not be withdrawn from competition without his consent.

Display of Names

13. Exhibitors and other persons in charge of Poultry and Eggs are prohibited from displaying the name of the Exhibitor in any way during judging.

Feeding and Attendance

14. Pens, food and attendants for Poultry will be provided by the Society.

Subject to Orders

15. All persons in charge of stock, or other exhibits and all persons admitted into the Showground shall be subject to the rules of the Society and shall obey the orders of the Stewards, Show Manager and other officials of the Society. Exhibitors shall be answerable for the conduct of their attendants or representatives.

Disqualifying Entries

16. The Judge may disqualify any Exhibit fraudulently dealt with or any person he deems to be guilty of dishonourable conduct.

Exhibition Pairs and Trios

17. These shall comprise of the following: Pair - one male and one female of the same breed; Trio - one male and two females of the same breed.

Junior Classes

18. These Classes are open only to exhibitors under 16 years old at closing date for entries.

Protests

19. A protest having reference to Exhibits at the Show may be lodged by any person having interest. Protests having reference to Poultry or Egg Competitions must be lodged in writing with the Show Manager at his office not later than 7.00 p.m. on the day of judging. Each protest must state specifically the grounds of objection and must be accompanied by a deposit of £5.00 which, if the protest is dismissed, may be forfeited.

Display of Competitive Exhibits

20. Poultry and Eggs in the Competitive Classes will be exhibited on the Saturday and Sunday of the Show, only.

Insufficient Merit

21. In no case shall a prize be awarded unless the Judge deems the Exhibit to have sufficient merit.

Poultry Schedule

Judging of Classes

22. The Chief Steward shall have the authority to re-allocate the judging of classes to Judges as appropriate.

Admittance of Public

23. Members of the Public will be allowed admission throughout the Show, but while judging is in progress they will not be allowed up the aisles. Signs "Judging in Progress" shall be clearly placed and the aisles will be roped off.

Removal of Entries

24. Competitive exhibits may not leave the Poultry Marquee before 5.00 p.m. on the Sunday of the Show, except on certificate by the Official Veterinary Surgeons, countersigned by the Chief Steward or the Show Manager. Between 5.00 p.m. and 7.00 p.m. on the Sunday of the show Exhibitors, or their authorised representatives, may box and remove their exhibits from display and may leave the showground by foot. In the event of neither the Exhibitor nor an authorised representative of the Exhibitor being present to pen or remove the Poultry, the birds will be penned and removed by persons hired and paid by the Society but this will be done on the understanding that the persons are hired to do the work on behalf of Exhibitors, and solely at their risk, and that the Society will be in no way responsible for expenses incurred or loss of or injury to Exhibits by errors or accidents in penning, despatching, or conveying of exhibits.

Railstock

25. No competition or display Exhibits shall be received by rail and no transit labels will be issued by the Society for this purpose.

Exhibitors' Instructions

26. These will be sent out to you prior to the Show detailing access route and Gate applicable.

Novice Exhibitors

27. Eligible only if the exhibitor has not competed in The Royal Highland Show Poultry Classes before.

NUMBERS OF ENTRIES

Exhibitors should note that a particular check will be made on entries for each class with a view to revising the schedule for a subsequent Show. Classes will be amalgamated where numbers are found to be not sufficient to warrant a 'single' class. This will be at the discretion of the Chief Steward

ANIMAL HEALTH REGULATIONS FOR POULTRY

- (a) Newcastle Disease
It is a recommendation of the Scottish Executive Environment and Rural Affairs Department that all Poultry should be vaccinated against Newcastle Disease. Information and guidance is given in the booklet "Newcastle Disease Control" obtainable from SEERAD. Exhibitors should consult their veterinary surgeons for advice on vaccination programmes. Vaccination is not a condition of entry to the Royal Highland Show.
- (b) Diseased Birds
Birds suffering from any form of infectious or contagious disease must not be brought to the Show. The Steward shall have power to require any bird showing any such symptoms to be examined by the Official Veterinary Surgeon and, if found to be so infected, to be isolated or removed from the Showground.
- (c) Notifiable Disease
Any bird which shows symptoms suggestive of a notifiable disease must immediately be reported to the Society's Official Veterinary Surgeon and/or the Chief Steward who will then inform the Divisional Veterinary Manager.
All requests and instructions by the Official Veterinary Surgeon, the Chief Steward or the Divisional Veterinary Manager concerning the suspected bird must be complied with.
- (d) New Legislation
In the event of new Animal Health legislation being enacted between the date of preparation of this Schedule and the date of the Royal Highland Show, then Exhibitors will be expected to abide by any new conditions of that legislation.
- (e) Exhibitors from the Isle of Man and outwith Mainland Britain
Any Exhibitor from the Isle of Man or outwith Mainland Britain, including those from EU Member States, will, in addition to the Society's Health Regulations, be required to abide by all British import and export regulations.
It is the sole responsibility of the exhibitor to ensure that their bird(s) will be eligible to return to their Member State of origin, and are accompanied by the appropriate return certification.
