IMPORTANT SUMMARY INFORMATION

These Ticket Terms and Conditions set out the full terms and conditions applicable to any public tickets purchased for the Royal Highland Show at the Royal Highland Centre, Ingliston (the "Show"). For the avoidance of doubt, these Ticket Terms and Conditions shall not apply to any exhibitor tickets or member tickets.

It is important that you read and understand these Ticket Terms and Conditions. By attending the Show you will be deemed to have accepted these Ticket Terms and Conditions. These Ticket Terms and Conditions will be updated from time to time.

In particular, we want to draw your attention to the following:

Availability

All ticket types are subject to availability and cannot be issued once a day has sold out (see Section A for further details on buying your tickets).

Refunds

Tickets for the Show will be non-refundable. Notwithstanding the foregoing, you may be entitled to a refund if the Show is cancelled or postponed prior to its commencement (see Section B for further details on refunds).

No Re-sale of Tickets

The re-sale of tickets is prohibited except in limited circumstances. If you sell your ticket to someone else for commercial gain or at a higher price than face value, or advertise it for sale, other than as permitted under these Ticket Terms and Conditions or otherwise with our permission, we may cancel or void that ticket (see Section F for further details on using your tickets). This includes tickets being bundled with other goods or services (e.g. accommodation, travel, hospitality) and selling on without the permission of The Royal Highland & Agricultural Society of Scotland.

Re-admission will be permitted at the Show. Ticket holders will be required to present the following on re-entry: (i) a valid ticket for that day of the Show; and (ii) an official hand stamp from the Show that must be acquired from the exit gate when initially leaving the Show. You will not be permitted re-entry to the Show without a valid ticket and an official re-entry stamp.

We reserve the right to impose health and safety related protocols which spectators must comply with while attending the Show, including but not limited to physical distancing measures, the use of face coverings, the provision of contact details for NHS Scotland Test and Protect purposes or similar, the requirement to provide proof at the entry gates of full (two dose) COVID-19 vaccination administered at least 14 days before attendance and to undertake any testing that we might consider appropriate or that we might be required to perform.

Any spectators who refuse or fail to comply with such conditions may have their tickets cancelled, be refused entry or removed from the Show, and in such circumstances will not be entitled to a refund.

All spectators who choose to attend the Show do so in the knowledge that they may be exposed to and/or at increased risk of contracting COVID-19 or any other communicable disease.
